Program: Rick Carter, "Security Analysis – What appears to work, what does not and why."

Rick Carter is Professor of Finance in the College of Business at Iowa State University. He is originally from upstate New York where he graduated from SUNY at Potsdam with a Bachelor's degree in History. He spent four years in the Marine Corps and served in Vietnam. Dr. Carter currently teaches Real Estate, Investments and Security Analysis courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. He received his MBA in 1985 and his Ph.D. in Finance in 1987, both from the University of Utah. Prior to receiving his graduate degrees, Dr. Carter was Supervisor of Data Processing and of Policy-owner Service at Mutual of New York and Terminal Manager at Stott and Davis Motor Express. His research interests include investment banking, security analysis and capital acquisition. He has published in such journals as the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis, the Journal of Finance and Financial Management.

President's Message

Disappointing that the January meeting was cancelled, but it took away my guilt feelings about the conflict with the AIOFA concert. The Y2K bug turned out to be DOA. And how quickly that hype went away.

Have you recommendations for scholarship awards on the national and local level? Have we a Woman of Achievement to nominate for the national award?

In my E-Mail last week:

How Women See Themselves:

- Age 8: Looks at herself and see Cinderella/Sleeping Beauty.
- Age 15: Looks at herself and see Cinderella/Sleeping Beauty/Cheerleader. Or if she is PMS'ing, sees pimples/UGLY. ("Mom, I can't go to school looking like this.")
- Age 20: Looks at herself and sees too fat/too thin, too short/too tall, too straight/too curly, but decides she's going out anyway.
- Age 30: Looks at herself and sees too fat/too thin, too short/too tall, too straight/too curly, but decides she doesn't have time to fix it so she's going out anyway.
- Age 40: Looks at herself and sees too fat/too thin, too short/too tall, too straight/too curly, but says, "At least I'm clean" and goes out anyway.
- Age 50: Looks at herself and sees "I am" and goes wherever she wants to.
- Age 60: Looks at herself and reminds herself of all the people who can't even see themselves in the mirror anymore and goes out and conquers the world.

Age 70: Looks at herself and sees wisdom, laughter and ability and goes out and enjoys life.
Age 80: Doesn't bother to look, just puts on a red hat and goes out to participate in the world.
Age 90: Can't see and doesn't worry about it!

Our efforts should be to help women to see themselves as world conquerers before age 30 instead of age 60. We are women helping women to achieve their potential.

Looking forward to our meeting with Rick Carter talking about the stock market. What a timely subject. Don't we all wish we were in high tech stocks? If we just knew when to get in and when to get out!

One way to support each other is to attend the meetings. We show our appreciation for the efforts of Sue and Kate and for the speakers who are willing to give their time and talents to educate and entertain us. And, of course, there's CPE to be earned!

See you Wednesday! Bring a valentine!

TO: Chapter Presidents and Secretaries
CC: National Board of Directors and Area Directors
FROM: ASWA Headquarters

RE: Extension for Response to Report of Nominating Committee

On January 24, the report of the nominating committee was sent to you. Due to unexpected delays in confirming the slate, the report was distributed later than planned. We realize that the original February 8 response deadline does not allow adequate time for chapters to consider the proposed slate and submit additional nominees should they wish to do so. Therefore, in consultation with our national parliamentarian, we are extending the deadline to March 8.

In the event your chapter desires to place additional names on the ballot, please refer to Article V, Section 3 of the National Bylaws, which reads, in part, as follows:

ARTICLE V, OFFICERS

"...Additional nominees may be added to the ballot provided consent of the member has been obtained, and a petition has been signed by at least ten members from each of five chapters and is mailed to the President to be received not later than February 8."

Again, the February 8 deadline has been extended to March 8. Please contact ASWA headquarters if you have any questions.

For your convenience, we have attached the Report below.
